ALL-TIME RECORD IS THREATENED BY HIGH RECEIPTS ON MONDAY

TRADING SLOW BECAUSE OF HUGE NUMBERS AS ALL MARTS CONGESTED

By The Associated Press.

Texas stockyards were jammed today with tomorrow's T-bone steaks, and there was even an increase of bacon-on-the-hoof as all-time records fell before an onslaught of cattle, hogs, sheep and goats.

San Antonio stockyards were so crowded a shortage of pens was threatened. The Union Stockyards reported 12,000 cattle, 700 hogs and 6,000 sheep and goats.

Carlton Magelstein, president of the Union Stockyards company, said he expected the unusual movemennt to continue until frost. He said this is the time of year when normally there would be an increase in stockyards receipts, due to range conditions. He said the stock was in "fine shape" and ready for the butchers.

Receipts Are "Huge"

"The receipts are huge but was to be expected following the removal of OPA restrictions," he said.

Hagelstein said prices have been "stimulated" but are in line with the prices of other commodities.

San Antonio's cattle came from 125 counties, and began arriving at the yards yesterday afternoon, usually by truck.

A shortage of rail cars was reported.

Trade Very Slow.

The Fort Worth market was so highly congested that trade in cattle and calves was very slow.

Most slaughter cattle and calves drew bids of $1 to $3 below last Friday's levels.

It was the worst congestion at the stockyards since ranchers rushed their anmials to market in 1917.

30,000 Head Received.

The 70 acres of pens were jammed with an estimated 30,000 bawling cattle and calves as approximately 100 trucks waited to be unloaded and others continued to arrive. Packers continued to buy on the market and excess cattle belonging to them will be housed in hog pens.

G. L. Piper, general manager of the yards, said an attempt will be made to handle everything that arrives. No embargo has been de-

WHOLE, HALF VEAL CARCASSES ABOUT 30-32 CENTS POUND

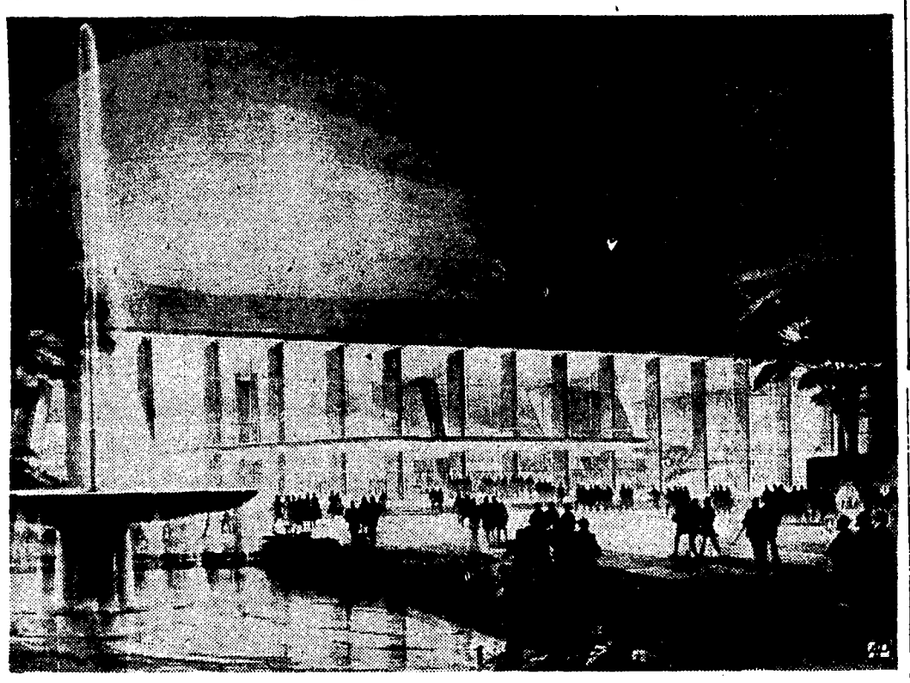

HOUSTON, Tex., Oct. 21—(AP)—Whole or half carcasses of the best quality dressed veal was selling to retail markets today at around 30 to 32 cents a pound, meat packinghouses reported.

However, as one packer explained, the price is so unsteady that this price may be way off in a short while.

Most of them were expecting the price to be lowered, as a result of the heavy runs of meat animals to market.

Others declared it would require 60 days to fill packinghouse cooler and no substantial break can be expected in the market until inventories are filled.

Today's wholesale price of dressed veal carcasses compared with an OPA ceiling of 24.05 cents at the time meat was de-controlled a week ago.

U.N. General Assembly To Open Wednesday

By JAMES MARLOW.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—(AP)—The general assembly of the United Nations opens its first meeting in this country Wednesday in New York. Nothing sensational is expected.

The meeting—to be held on the World's Fair grounds in New York City—will last about six weeks. This is the assembly's second meeting. The first was last January and February in London.

That London meeting was more or less a routine affair. Most of its time went into setting up the various agencies or committees which will do the work of U. N.

Many Reports Expected.

At the New York meeting the assembly will hear the reports—and maybe take action on the reports—of some of those agencies or committees created last winter in London.

From now on the general assembly meetings—like those of U. N.'s Security Council—will be held in this country. That's because U. N. has chosen the United States as headquarters.

One of the main jobs of the assembly at this first American meeting will be to try to decide where in the United States it wants permanent headquarters.

No Veto in Assembly.

The general assembly is not like the security council. Although there are 51 nations in U. N., only 11 are on the security council. Those 11 include the Big Five: United States, Britain, Russia, France, China.

If anyone of the Big Five wants to block important action by the other 10 members of the council, it can do so with a veto, a "no" vote.

It's different in the general assembly. There all 51 member nations have one vote. And no one nation can block assembly action with a veto. There's no veto in the assembly.

Council Handles Disputes.

So far in the history of U. N. the security council has held most attention. That's because the work it does is so dramatic. When one nation starts pushing another around, the council has to try to stop it to prevent war.

The security council does other work, too, but its big job is to salve the sore spots—the dangerous ones—which spring up.

But the assembly has the vast job of dealing in human welfare and other international problems of a less explosive nature.

REMOVAL OF FLOUR, BREAD CEILINGS IS SAID IMMINENT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Both OPA and agriculture department officials indicated today that price controls will drop from flour, bread and other baked goods this week, possibly today or tomorrow.

An OPA spokesman said there has been some discussion of decontrolling bread, rolls and other baked goods while temporarily retaining ceilings on flour and other millers' products.

This official pointed out that decontrols had been removed from all fats and oils, including shortening, which are a big share of bakers' costs.

Freeing of flour, bread and other goods from price ceilings would reduce OPA controls to a small share of the average family's food. Cereals make up about 12 per cent of the average family budget and about 80 per cent of the food budget had been freed from price lids previously.

On the automobile front, where four industry-wide increases in the last year have boosted ceilings roughly 22 per cent above 1942 prices, the OPA official told a reporter:

Auto Prices Spiked.

"Most of the major manufacturers agree with us that automobile prices have gone about as high under ceilings as they should."

The official declined to comment specifically, however, on a pending General Motors request for an additional price boost similar to that granted the Ford Motor Company some weeks ago under terms of a hardship provision of the new OPA act.

The Ford increase amounted to about six percent and was in ad-

Prudential Plans Headquarters For 8-County District

Corsicana will be the headquarters of an eight-county district for the Prudential Insurance Company of America, one of the largest concerns in the insurance field. This information was received by a group of Corsicana business executives Saturday evening at a dinner at the Country Club when G. H. Chace, vice president in charge of agencies, and Admiral Gerald A. Eubank, in charge of organizing Texas agencies, were honor guests of Joe E. Butler and Mayor John C. Calhoun.

This company is returning to Texas after 39 years absence, and a group of executives, headed by President Carrol M. Shanks, have been touring and inspecting Texas cities. The insurance executives attended the Mid-Continent Oil Convention in Houston last week.

The Prudential is the second largest insurance company in America.

Short talks were made by the two honor guests and by Mayor Calhoun.

MARINES CAPTURED BY ARMED CHINESE ARE STILL MISSING

PEIPING, Oct. 21—(AP)—Two United States Marines, members of a nine-man hunting party, were captured yesterday by armed Chinese and still were missing today, Marine headquarters announced.

In another incident, three U. S. sailors traveling by jeep near Tangku harbor fought off 50 Chinese in a gunbattle in which several Chinese were wounded. None of the sailors were hurt.

MOLOTOV PROMISES REDS TO COOPERATE FOR WORLD PEACE

NEW YORK, Oct. 21—(AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov promised today that the Russian delegation to the United Nations would contribute its part toward strengthening world peace.

"The delegation of the Soviet Union will contribute to insuring that the work of the United Nations assembly and the council of foreign ministers is successful and is accomplished in the interests of strengthening of peace and the well-being of peoples, great and small," Molotov said as he arrived on the Queen Elizabeth.

He was accompanied by Ukrianian Foreign Minister Dimitri Manuilsky and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky.

Welfare Group to Meet.

AUSTIN, Oct. 21.—(AP)—A study of Texas community and health problems will be made when the Texas Social Welfare Association meets Nov. 20-23 in San Antonio.

REDS' CHARGE OF 'CROOKEDNESS' ON PART OF U. S. IN DARDANELLES DISPUTE POINTS UP BIG ISSUES

BY DEWITT M'KENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst.

That's pretty strong mustard which the Moscow Pravda (official Communist party publication) handed us with our breakfast this morning—I mean the accusation that American and Turkish diplomats have been participating in "extraordinarily crooked secret talks" on the future of the Dardanelles.

Still, this pungent Russian condiment tends to emphasize the truth of the prediction in our column last Saturday that the Big Three are approaching a showdown over the serious differences between the Soviet Union and the Western Allies. Control of the Dardanelles—as I pointed out—is one of the issues which will help clear up the mystery of how much further Moscow aims to expand its sphere of dominance.

The Pravda article of course had reference to the fact that Turkey has rejected the Russian demand for a share in the defense of the Straits, and that Washington recently advised the Soviet Union that Uncle Sam didn't intend to be squeezed out of having a voice in the Dardsnelles. Britain has made similiar representations.

Well, the question of whether Uncle Sam has been up to dirty work at the Balkan cross-roads will have to be left to him to answer. One can only observe that he has made it amply clear recently that he doesn't intend to be pushed about.

However, we do have from Washington a highly interesting report bearing on America's attitude towards Europe. Officials who are in a position to know, say that Secretary of State Byrnes is rapidly lining up an American economic policy to fit in with "a patient but firm" U. S. attitude towards Russia and her Slav neighbors.

The secretary is said to be forming a proposal to pour several hundred million dollars into Italy, Austria and Greece while choking off American financial help to Eastern European nations. The informants in the capital say the American delegation to the recent Paris peace conferencec decided that the best policy would be to give all possible help to nations friendly to the United States but refuse aid to those who are unfriendly.

U. S. ARMY OFFICERS CONTINUING PROBE OF TRIPLE BOMBING

GERMAN ARMS CACHES SEIZED OVER WEEKEND IN WIDE SPREAD SEARCH

By RICHARD A. O'REGAN

STUTTGART, Germany, Oct. 21—(AP)—American Army officials, still investigating triple bombings of German and American installations in the Stuttgart area Saturday, disclosed today that "about 10" German arms caches were seized over the week-end in widespread searches in southern Germany.

Two caches of arms were unearthed at Donauthal, southwest of Ulm, and the remainder in southern Bavaria.

The officials said, however, the seizures were not conected with the Stuttgart bombings. A high ranking American army officer said he expected more bombings as "protests against the denazification program."

Expect Outbreak

"The American military government expects a widespread outbreak against the denazification program," the official, who may not be named, said in Berlin.

U. S. military and German criminal police worked with counter intelligence agents in efforts to crack the bombing of two denazification board headquarters and a U. S. military jail which

DALLAS ARCHITECT HERE IN CONNECTION HAT PLANT BUILDING

J. A. Pitzinger of Dallas, architect, and his staff were in Corsicana Monday to confer with the board of directors of the Corsicana Improvement Corp., regarding letting of contract for construction of the corporation's plant to be leased by Texas Miller Products, Inc., hat manufacturers.

Pitzinger was the luncheon guest Monday at noon of Mayor John C. Calhoun.

A meeting slated for 11:30 a. m. Monday of directors of the organization, was deferred until afternoon, according to B. L. Sanders.

It was hoped to have the work started within 30 days, officials said.

Civil Service Seeks Student Dietitians

Examinations for student dietitian training have been announced by the U. S. civil service commission. The training will be in War Department, Veterans Administration, and Public Health Service hospitals. The maximum salary for the 12-months training period will be $1,470, which includes allowance for subsistence, quarters and overtime. Students who complete the training in the veterans and public health service hospitals will be eligible for appointment as staff dietitian, salary $2,644 per year. Those completing the war department training will be eligible for a commission in the army as medical department dietitian at a base pay of $2,160, plus allowances for quarters and subsistence. Further information and application forms can be obtained from W. C. Galloway, local civil service commission secretary, Corsicana postoffice.

School Building Sold.

J. C. Watson, county superintendent of schools, announced Monday the sale of the Phillips Chapel school building to the Powell Baptist church for $2,250.

The church made the highest bid for the structure. The board of trustees made the transaction in the superintendent's office.

BYRNES TACKLES NEW PROBLEMS REPORTEDLY CONFIDENT POLICY TOWARD RUSSIA FULLY BACKED

BY GRAHAM HOVEY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Secretary of State Byrnes, reportedly confident that his "patient but firm" attitude toward Russia has wider support than ever, tackled pressing new problems today ranging from the Pacific to Turkey.

Aides said Byrnes was particularly pleased with the weekend radio speech of Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich), emphasizing the bipartisan" nature of American foreign policy and with President Truman's commendation of his own address setting forth specific points of that policy.

While the White House was silent on the field Mr. Truman will cover when he speaks at the opening session of the United Nations Assembly in New York on Wednesday, officials in a position to knnow said the Chief Executive, like Vandenberg, will stress a number of points made by Byrnes.

The President, they said, will emphasize the necessity of achieving "freedom from fear." And he may they add, make some pointed, if indirect, references to what the American government regards as Russian "war of nerves" tactics toward countries supporting American and British objectives on peacemaking issues.

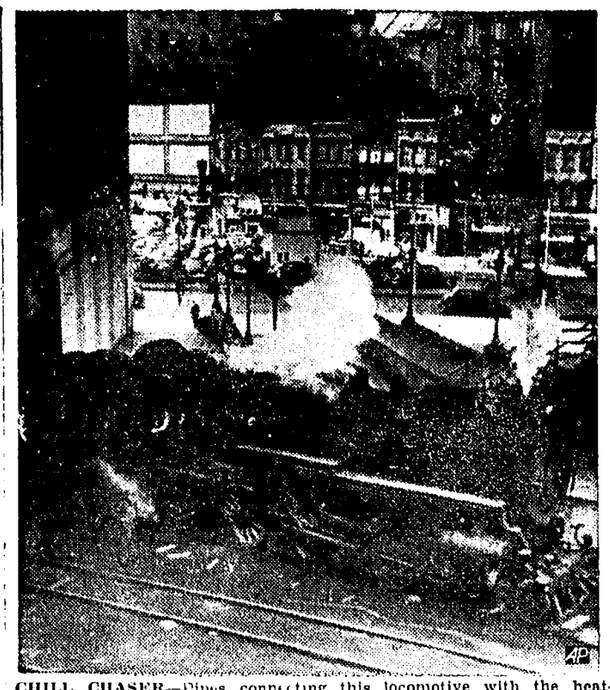

Meanwhile, diplomatic problems piled up on Byrnes' desk.

Officials say that one he would like to settle before he goes to New York with the President Wednesday is that involving the American policy on U. N. trusteeships.

There are still some wide differences on this subject between state department officials on one side and war and navy officials on the other. The State department generally favors putting as many of the former Japanese and Japanese-mandated Pacific Islands as possible under some type of U. N. trusteehip.

The services generally want to keep all islands which might conceivably be essential to American security under exclusive American control.

The secretary also may have to figure out new American moves in the so-called "slave labor" issue with Yugoslavia and the ticklish problem of administration of the Dardanelles.

STRIKE OF PILOTS HALTS AIRLINE SERVICE; POWER DISPUTE ENDED; HOPES HELD IN SHIPPING TIEUP

By The Associated Press.

A strike by pilots on Trans-World Airlines—the first work stoppage of its kind against a major airline—went into effect early today, crippling service on the 28,270-mile route as the fliers left their planes at division points where the pilots normally lay over for a rest.

David L. Behncks, president of the Air Line Pilots Association (AFL), said the action was a "last recourse" to settle a wage dispute more than a year old. TWA President Jack Frye said the strike was called after a 30-hour "ultimatum" had beenn delivered Saturday morning by Behncke.

90 Flights Cancelled.

More than 90 flights were cancelled, leaving an estimated 3,000 passengers temporarily stranded. In addition, the movement of 25 tons of mail was diverted to other carriers. TWA, fourth largest U. S. airline, operatse over 28,270 miles of routes.

Company headquarters here said the flight cancellatitonn was effective for a 24-hour period beginning from the time the strike started at 4:59 a. m. (EST). Operations plans beyond the 24-hour period were not disclosed.

Other Lines Not Affected.

Other airlines were not affected by the walkout—the first of its kind in the history of commercial aviation. Strikers threw up a picket line at Kansas City maintenance shops but there were no reports of similar action elsewhere.

The AFL Airlines Pilots association, whose members fly TWA's Skymasters and Constellations, demanded wage increnses which the company said would make top pilots' pay $15,300 yearly. The union estimated its demand at $1,187.43 monthly for first pilots.

Power Strike Ends.

The airline strike was one of the few gloomy spots in the labor picture. In Pittsburgh, power workers returned to their posts ending a 27-day strike, after voting to submit their demands to arbitration. A note of optimism was sounded by a federal conciliator working on the maritime strike, as East and Gulf Coast operators prepared to meet again today with the two striking unions.

The end of the Pittsburgh power strike was expected to bring about a speedy return to normal life for the 817-square mile industrial area in which the Duquesne Light company provides service for 1,900,000 persons. George L. Mueller, president of the Independent power union which has a membership of 3,200, said he believed the union accepted arbitration—which it had twice before rejected—because of what he describedd a a change in the national wage outlook following relaxation of OPA control.

New Confidence Voiced.

The union had demanded a wage increase from $1.18 to $1.41 an hour, while the company offered five per cent.

Federal Conciliator Frederick Livingston said he was "fairly confident all problems would will be worked out" by the maritime disputants. A spokesman for the CIO Marine Engineers Beneficial Association said wage rates and preferential hiring issues had been agreed upon with East and Gulf Coast operators, while night relief and overtime rates remained to be discussed.

80 Bakeries Closed

In New Orleans, where 80 bakeries were closed for the fourth day, no break was in sight. The AFL bakers union was seeking a pay increase and compensation for time lost. Efforts were being made to

Eight Texans Meet Death In Weekend Violence, Wrecks

By The Associated Press.

Guns and planes caused more deaths than traffic accidents in Texas over the week end. Eight are dead and at least 10 injured.

In Huntsville, Albert Rucker, 27, quarreled with his wife and she jumped from a car, injuring herself. Dr. John C. Garrett, 33, was called to treat her. During his visit to the Rucker home, Rucker shot and killed Dr. Garrett, then turned the rifle on himself and committed suicide.

George Frank Artice, 25, of Fort Worth and Syracuse, N. Y., was shot and killed at a roadside hotel near Wichita Falls. A murder charge was filed against the hotel manager, John D. Alter, 26, of Wichita Falls.

Two residents of Dalhart were

COMMUNIST PARTY IS DEFEATED IN GERMAN ELECTION

BERLIN, Oct. 21—(AP)—The Soviet-backed Socialist unity party (SED) appeared today to have been routed in Berlin's first free municipal election in 14 years, which an AMG official termed of continent-wide significance in the issue between eastern and western political philosophies.

Virtually complete returns from yesterday's election of municipal and Borough councilmen showed the SED running a poor third in a field of four parties.

Democrats Score Victory

The Social Democratic Party (SPD) scored a smashing victory, capturing almost half the total vote. The Christian Democratic Union (CDU) was second, well ahead of the Socialist Unity Party.

With only 109 out of 2,284 precincts yet to be heard from, the vote was: Social Democrats, 948,743; Christian Democratic Union, 43,916; Socialist Unity Party, 383,182; Liberal Democratic Party (LDP), 182,097.

This would give the Social Democrats 48.7 percent of the total

PRICES STILL LOWER THAN FRIDAY CLOSE WHEN TRADING ENDS

FULL DROP COMES WHEN EXCHANGES REOPEN, BUT PART IS GAINED BACK

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Cotton futures tumbled the day's limit of $10 a bale here today, but in the late trading recovered most of the loss.

An official of the New Orleans exchange commented that the market had about stabilized itself after the week end shock occasioned by suspending trading on Saturday to liquidate a large long account.

The trade reported that the long account of a New Orleans operator had been closed out and about 175,000 males taken over by a large spot firm. It was unofficially reported at the exchange that the 175,000 figure was "a little high."

Account Not Identified.

The account was not identified by the exchange.

At the final hour of trading mill buying and replacement demand brought prices back from the day's lows to levels unchanged for October to only $1.50 a bale lower than the previous close for other mnoths.

At the height of the recovery December sold at 33.16 cents a pound, down 22 points; March 32.80, down 1 point; May 32.25, down 30 points; July 31.42, down 3, and October 28.36, unchanged.

All months went the limit of $10 a bale or 200 points below the previous close in the first hour of today's session, under a continuation of general selling.

Most Prices Rally

But in the second hour new buying brought a recovery of $5 to $7.70 a bale from the day's close, or $2.30, to $5.00 a bale below the previous close.

At that hour Dec. sold at 32.55 cents a pound, off 83 points; March 32.15, off 66 points; May 31.55, off 100 points; July 30.50, off 95 points and Oct. 27.90, off 46.

While brokers took stock of their market dealings, N. C. Williamson, cotton grower and veteran farm leader of Lake Providence, La., wired President Truman and Secretary of Agriculture Anderson to "use emergency war powers to protest farmers from ruinous prices."

Loss Said 200 Million

Williamson estimated that last week's losses to the farmers under the drop of about $25 a bale would amount to $200,000,000 to the South's main cash crop, unless there is a substantial price recovery. This was based on an 8,000,000-bale crop.

In his telegram Williamson told the Washington officials:

"Cotton is in a strong statistical

Temporary Closing Cotton Exchanges Urged By M'Donald

AUSTIN, Tex., Oct. 21—(AP)—J. E. McDonald, State Commissioner of Agriculture, today said he had wired the New York and New Orleans cotton exchanges and the Chicago Board of Trade to urge that they not reopen until actual conditions of the cotton industry are clarified and confidence is restored.

"I am urging cotton farmers of the South to place their unsold cotton 'n government loan and not sell below 40 cents per pound," he said.

McDonald has repeatedly predicted that the nation will see the most acute cotton shortage since Civil War days before the 1947 cotton crop is ready for harvest.

"With domestic consumption estimated at 10,000,000 bales and export requirements of 4,000,000 bales, a total (demand) of 14,000,000 bales is almost 50 percent more than this year's production, which will be around 8,250,000 bales," the agriculture commissioner declared.

He predicted that this situation "is certian to result in great scarcity of cotton by the spring of 1947."

COMMODITY PRICES AGAIN VARY BUT NEW CHANGES NOT SO WIDE AS THOSE RECORDED LAST WEEK

CHICAGO, Oct. 21—(AP)—Prices of various commodities in the nation's markets again moved in divergent directions today, but changes were not as wide as last week.

Cotton, poultry, and eggs declined, grains, butter and livestock were mostly higher. Midway in the day's trading this was the situation:

Cotton futures, after declining the limit of $10 a bale at New York, New Orleans and Chicago, staged a rally. With trading active, losses averaged around $5.00. A heavy volume of goods was sold in the cotton textile market at ceiling prices with demand strong.

Grain futures moved ahead with wheat averaging around 2 cents a bushel higher at Chicago, Minneapolis and Kansas City. Corn also was up about 2 cents and oats gained 1 to 2 cents

Egg prices in the wholesale market at New York declined a cent and at Chicago they were off 1 to 3 cents a dozen.

Wholesale butter advanced 1 to 1 1-2 cents at New York and 1 1-2 to 2 1-2 cents at Chicago.

Live poultry was unchanged to 2 cents a pound lower at Chicago.

Hogs were $1.00 to $2.00 higher at Chicago, 50 cents to $1.00 higher at St. Louis and steady at Indianapolis. Cattle were steady to 50 cents higher at Chicago, steady at Indianapolis and slightly lower at St. Louis.

Trading was resumed in coffee futures at New York. Transactions were made at 25 cents a pound compared with recent ceilings of 22 1-2 cents.

VISITORS BURIED IN ALL DEPARTMENTS BY SCRAPPY LOCAL TEAM

GLADIATORS FIGHT HARD IN TOPHEAVY BATTLE ON GARITTY GRIDIRON

By A. T. CANANT
Sun Sports Staff.

The hustling State Home Lads met Italy's Gladiators at Garitty Field last night and turned thumbs down on the visiting gridmen with a 30-0 score, outclassing the game Ellis county boys in every department.

It was the Lads' ball game from the fourth minute of the first quarter, when Downey crossed Italy's goal for the first marker, till the final whistle. The Gladiators, playing their first year in District 22-B, tried all the way, but threatened seriously but once.

Recovered Fumble.

Italy fumbled and the locals recovered on the visitors' 38 to set the stage for the first tally early in the game. Shortly after Downey hit the center for 54 yards to the Italy 2, and then crossed the goal on the next play.

The Lads blocked an Italy punt and recovered it to pave the way for the second marker. Starting from midfield, Downey and Rawls hit the center for a touchdown.

The old "Statute of Liberty" play accounted for two of the State Home touchdowns, with Tate carrying the ball on both of them. Aided by some fine deceptive work on the part of his teammates, he loped 27 yards for one of the markers. The other he took over from the 5 yard line, after two passes and as many running plays had put the ball in scoring position.

Visitors Make Threat.

The Gladiators' only threat came late in the game when some excellent offensive work by Wakefield and Jackson took the ball to the Lads' 1 yard stripe. Here the local forward wall stiffened and held for four downs, and they took over the ball on their own eight. Milner scored State Home's fourth touchdown on a 30 yard run behind almost perfect blocking. The Lads failed to convert any of their five chances for point after touchdown.

Coach John Corner started his "B" team, and few members of his first team saw any action last night. One exception was Rawls, 168-pound back who was injured early in the season but recovered quickly enough to take part in this game and score once.

Starting Lineups.

State Home—Elrod, Bryant, Carpenter, Wells, Redding, Herrington, Murdock, Taber, Colburn, Milner and Downey.

Italy—Graves, Killibrew, Hinds, Muirhead, Cornwell, Cannon, Hodges, Jackson, Knott, Hart and Wakefield.

Summary.

Kerens 32, Mildred 0.

Kerens Bobcats proved too strong for the Mildred Eagles at the Mildred field Friday afternoon, with the East Navarro contingent rolling up a 32-0 decision. The game was a District 23-B affair.

Blooming Grove 20, Frost 7

FROST, Oct. 19.—(AP)—Hollingsworth of Blooming Grove grabbed a 20-yard pass and ran 50 more to rack up one of the touchdowns against the Frost Polar Bears here Friday afternoon and took a pass in the final period for the final marker. The Blooming Grove Lions won, 20-7, in their annual District 23-B contest. Troy Rosson smacked the Frost line for the first marker in the opening period.

Frost's only touchdown was a 20-yard aerial from Vinson to Burns in the second quarter with Vinson kicking the extra point.

Cleburne Junior Eleven Defeats Corsicana 37-18

Cleburne Junior High school dropped the Corsicana Junior High School Panthers 37-18 Thursday night at Cleburne in a game played in the face of a crisp norther.

The Panthers were bothered in the first half when driving rain hampered defensive work and grounded the locals' passing attack. The heavier Clebumites pushed over two scores in the first half to lead 12-0.

In the third period the Panthers came to life and began throwing the ball, counting three times while Cleburne was scoring twice. On three drives that originated between the Cleburne 46 and 30 yard line, Walter Bond, Panther fullback, tossed aerials to Johnny Crawfrod, Don McGee, and Paul Rash for the scores. Wayne Ganze failed to convert in three tries.

Cleburnue came back strong in the final canto to score twice for a 37-13 win. An estimated one-inch rain fell in the second period of play. Coaches Hay and Compton sent their Panthers back in the third period with instructions to disregard the wet field and take to the air.

Don McGee, captain for the game, turned in a spectacular game, scoring once and being a terror on defense. He was the standout of the game, with his fine blocking and play spilling work.

Starting lineup for the locals was Paul Rash, left end; Alton Ratliff, left tackle; Dickie Brown, left guard; Robert Veal, center; Billy Elliott, right guard; Howard Chapman, right tackle; Don McGee, right end; Walter Bond, fullback; Bobbie Joe Staggs, left half; Johnny Crawford, right half; and Frank Warfield, quarterback. Substitutes were newcomer Elbert Berry, Charles Bristow, and Wayne Ganze in the backfield; newcomer Ernest Markle and Don Bolen at ends.

Mesdames G. E. Ramsey, Sr., of Blooming Grove and J. K. Bradley of Rice were in Corsicana on Thursday evening to serve as chairman and hostess, respectively, for the meeting of Alpha Rho Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, that was held at Navarro Junior College.

Interview Applicants For Highway Patrol

A group of Corsicanans served on the interviewing board for applicants for state highway patrolmen vacancies Saturday at Forest Avenue High school in Dallas.

On the board from Corsicana were J. C. Roe, county attorney; J. N. Garitty, vice president of the First National Bank; and J. Floyd Smith, cashier of the First National Bank. District Judge A. P. Mays was scheduled to sit on the board, but the press of official duties forced his withdrawal.

Highway Patrolman Byron Currin took the group to Dallas where Highway Patrolman R. M. Arnold is conducting the fingerprinting of applicants.

Seek Changes Crop Insurance Program

Requests for changes in the 1947 crop insurance program for Navarro county were drafted Thursday in Dallas at the quarterly meeting of state ACA administrative officers, Cline T. Young, Navarro secretary, disclosed Friday.

The 1947 insurance program was discussed and delegates agreed that the program was not yet perfected. Fred Rennals, first administrative assistant to the state director, will present the requests to federal crop insurance authorities in Washington.

It is hoped, Young said, to obtain a program that will fit Navarro county. The desired chunges will be given to officials holding authority to make amendments to the outlined program.

County committeemen of the ACA and officials of other federal agricultural offices in the county will meet at the ACA office in the courthouse, Oct. 22, to select practices from the 1947 handbook. There are 41 practices available for the county program.

Mrs. W. S. Price, Jr., of Kerens, was a visitor in the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Carter, on Thursday.

TIGERS LOSE FIRST HALF LEAD TO DROP CONTEST TO EAGLES

LOCAL HIGH SCHOOLERS HOT, COLD IN DISTRICT BATTLE FRIDAY NIGHT

By GROVER HEIMAN
Sun Sports Staff

Plucked badly in the first half by a hot and cold Corsicana Tiger eleven, the Hillsboro Eagles came to life in the second half to push two touchdowns for a 12-6 victory Friday night on Tiger field before a thrilled crowd of 3,000.

A 45 yard pass play from Bill Reed to Danny McLeod counted for the locals in the first five minutes of play to rock the Fethered Flock back on its heels. Barkhart's kick was wide. A hard running attack by the Tigers alternately waxed sharp and rusty during the remainder of the half with the Tigers gaining 83 yards from scrimmage while losing 56 for a net of 25 In the air the locals gained 104 yards during the first half. Hillsboro gained a total of 50 yards.

After the locals apparently gained a safety in the first few minutes of the second half, the red jerseyed Eagles surged back with a clicking T formation in a drive that began on the 20 after the play was called a touchback by the officials. Three first downs placed the ball on the Tiger 39 from where Bobby McFarland, hard driving fullback, plowed through a hole and rambeld the remaining distance to score. Giles' kick was blocked by Blair Beamon, Tiger end.

The Eagles came back strong in the fourth period to drive from their own 26 for a 72 yard touchdown march aided by Tiger penalties. Bobby Dohoney, Hillsboro quarterback, dived from the Tiger nine yard line to count. Giles' kick was short.

Visitors Rushed

A hard rushing Hillsboro line sparked by two slashing ends, Foster and Farquhar, spelled doom for the Corsicana passing attack. The Eagle secondary was weak on pass defense, but the fine end play nullified Reed's efforts to unloose his aerial attempts. A complete lack of protection for Reed that began early in the second period squelched further scoring attempts.

The Tigers threatened once against in the final minutes of the first period when Toppy Watson intercepted Dohoney's pass on the Hillsboro 43. A pass to Bill Davis and a neat run by June Clark set the ball on the Hillsboro 24 yard line. Two pass attempts in the end zone were out of receiver's hands and a line smash by Reed to the 20 came as the period ended and the ball went over to the Eagles.

Clark's Great Run

Hillsboro's goal was threateneed again in the second period when the Tigers began a drive on their own 16. Clark hit the line for 3 and then a pass from Reed to Davis on the 30 was good and the shifty ball carrier unreeled the most spectacular run of the evening as he corkscrewed his way to the 50 through the entire Eagle team before he was pulled down.

Clark unreeled a brilliant 16 yard run as he raced to the east side, then reversed his field and with deception weaved his way to the Hillsboro 34. Three plays netted a loss of 31 yards and the Tigers punted out, but again took over on the Hillsboro 47 on the exchange. The passing team of Reed to Davis was good for 16 yards after two line plays, and then a flat toss to Sharpley netted 7 to the Hillsboro 20 yard line, where the drive fizzled after aerials to the end zone were failures.

Tiger Threat

As the half opened the Tigers received with Clark taking the kickoff on his 20 and racing it back to the 45 before he was swarmed under. Davis sliced through the line for 10 and on the next play Clark added 8 more. Burkhart made a first down on the Hillsboro 34. A loss and a penalty set the Tigers back on the Eagle 43, from which point Reed kicked to Dohoney, who apparently touched the ball, then raced back in the end zone to retrieve it where he was dropped by Watson and Sharpley. The officials called the play a touchback.

Hillsboro rolled then from the 20 on down to score. A Corsicana penalty for 15 yards gave the Eagles a new lease on life and McFarland took over from the 39 on a beautiful run. In this drive the majority of tackles were made by Guard Jimmy Mash, a standout all evening.

Payoff Touchdown

The visitors came back strong in the fourth period to drive down 72 yards to paydirt. Dohoney made the final 9 yards on a dive over the center of the line. On this drive the Tigers had apparently held on their own 27, but a fourth down lateral from Dohoney to McFarland gained the needed 8 yards and set the play for the final touchdown.

Standouts for the Tigers were Jimmy Mash and Joe Bob Dixon at guards and Bill Davis and June Clark in the backfield. Milton Spurgeon turned in a good game until he was injured in the fourth period.

For Hillsboro MacFarland and McCauley were the aces in the backfield with Foster and Farquahar shining in the line.

Corsicana dominated the first half play, having 7 first downs to Hillsboro's 2, and opened the second half with a running attack that operated nicely until the locals took the skyways. A revitalized Hillsboro eleven came back in the second portion of the tilt to completely dominate play and earn a clean cut victory. Both Coach Payne of Corsicana and Coach P. T. Faliga of Hillsboro used substitutes sparsely in the hard fought tilt.

The Tiger Band presented a half time marching exhibition. The Hillsboro pep leaders led the Hill county partisans in yells before the game, coming on the field and spelling an "H." The Tiger band opened the game with the traditional "All Hail Corsicana."

He "Loves That Woman" But Protests Her Foot-Patting, Church-Sitting Technique In Short Skirt; Negro Ex-Marine In Court

By BOB CAMPBELL
Daily Sun Staff

The dusky ex-Marine, still wearing parts of his dark green uniform, stood there before City Recorder Chris L. Knox and told his story of love and its pitfalls, marriage and its detours, a rousing church hymn and a foot-patting woman.

A few minutes before he had been arrested by Kelsey Blakeney, city policeman, on complaint of his wife that he roughed her up a little bit more than a great deal. Besides, she said, he had a gun handy, and Saturday he produced a dagger.

"Love That Woman"

"Judge," he said, "I want to tell you, I luv that woman."

"All I want, judge," she said, "is for you to detain him here until I can get my clothes and get back to my Ma in Tampa, Fla."

"Judge," he said, "I loves that woman. But listen.. Last night we wuz to church. I looked around and here's my wife with her dress up too high. That, judge, upset me.

Sitting Technique Issue

"We wuz going home, Judge and I said to her: 'Honey you sure got to learn to sit in church.'

"'What's the matter with my church sitting, boy?' she asked me.

"And I told her, I said, 'Honey, there ain't no call to sit in church with the dress up too high.'

"Singing and Patting"

"Judge," the wife interrupted, "I'm a foot-patting woman. I just can't help patting that foot when the hymns are sung loud and lusty. I get to singing and a-patting and these old short dresses start creeping up. Sometimes I get singing and a-patting so fast I forget. Last night I forgot, I guess, judge."

Judge Knox, who has seen a lot of these smouldering cases come and go, shook his head.

"Well, now, I don't know," he mulled.

Judge's Comment; $10

"Just detain him judge. Just hold him around until I can get my clothes and go to my ma in Tampa. This morning he come out with that dagger."

"But I loves her, Judge. It's just that church sitting and foot patting and dress creeping....."

"Ten dollars," said the judge.

"I got three," said the Negro ex-Marine. "I guss I'll have to see my brother."

Shower Compliments Kerens Bride-Elect

KERENS, Oct. 19.—(Spl.)—A miscellaneous shower compliimenting Miss Francine May, bride-elect of Billy Prince Berry, was given Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Leslie Parker, with Mesdames W. G. Johnson, Jack Anderson, Ernest Gray, Glen May and G. W. Speed as assisting hostesses.

Guests were welcomed by Mrs. Parker and presented to the honoree, Mrs. Dan May, mother of the bride to be, Mrs. Albert Berry, mother of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Glen May, who received.

The Parker home was decorated throughout with gardenias, roses, queen's wreath, marigolds and gladioli. The refreshment table was most attractive with its lace cover and floral arrangement of marigolds, yellow cat tails and burning yellow candles. Mrs. R P. Walker and Mrs. Horace Newsome alternated at the silver tea service, and Mrs. Ernest Gray, Mrs. Weldon Karley, Mrs. Joe Saunders and Mrs. Jack Anderson assisted in the dining room. Miss Junnell May presided over the bride's book and Mrs. Charles Reese and Mrs. G. W. Johnson displayed the gifts.

Instrumental and vocal numbers presented during calling hours were given by Mrs. M. B. Howell, Mrs. J. B. Coates, Mrs. L. H. Carroll, Jr., and Mrs. George Eubanks.

T-5 J. L. James arrived home last Thursday after 23 months of service in the U. S. Army. He will be discharged from the army at the conclusion of his terminal leave. Entering the service Jan. 10, 1945, James spent 16 months in the Pacific Theater of Operations.

In And Out Of Service

T-4 Ignacio T. Gonzales, 720 South Eleventh street, has been discharged from the service at the personnel center, Ft. Sam Houston, according to announcement by the army public relation office.

Youth's Poem In School Magazine

A recent issue of a national school publication carried a poem written by Alden Wilson, son of Mr and Mrs. J. A. Wilson, 108 East University, Waxahachie, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Mitchell of Corsicana.

The poem, "Neighbors," was written last spring while Alden was attending the Ferris elementary school. He was a student in the high fourth grade, Miss Opal Spears, teacher.

Commenting, the magazine said: "The poem was written when the class studied about how the early settlers helped one another. It has a pleasant pioneer flavor."

Alden is now attending school in Waxahachie and is in the fifth grade at the Marvin elementary school.

ALL SERVICES WEST SIDE CHURCH CHRIST LARGELY ATTENDED

Large audiences were present for both services of the Westside Church of Christ on the Lord's Day.

Sunday morning the minister began a series of sermons on "The Church." His subject for the morning hour was, "The Place of the Church In God's Plan." The conclusion drawn from his scriptural arguments was "the church is God's institution through which He is reconciling man unto Himself."

For his Sunday evening sermon the minister spoke on the subject, "God's Care For His People." His text was Romans 8:28. In this place the apostle Paul declared, "And we know that to them that love God all things work together for good, even to them that are called according to his calling." The minister also cited the examples of God's care for Noah, Job, Daniel, and others.

The Wednesday evening class meets at 7 with a study in the book of Hebrews. Great interest is being shown by all who are attending.

The new time for the Ladies' Bible Class is Wednesday at 3:30 p.m.

Dan Clark, minister of the Westside church, will begin a meeting at Rice next Lord's Day evening. Services will be in the Masonic Hall each evening at 7:30. The meeting will continue through No-

Leland Fikes, Dallas oil operator, a former Corsicana resident, properties of Maguire Industries, properties of Aaguire Industries Inc., according to information from Dallas, for a reported consideration of $2,000,000, the major portion of which was paid in cash and the remainder out of future production.

The properties, located in Kansas and Texas, consist of 74 producing wells on 8,000 acres.

LAYMEN LEAGUE IN CHARGE SERVICES FIRST CHRISTIAN

The Men's Laymen League had charge of the program at the First Christian church Sunday evening. Seaton Holsey, president, presided and J. W. Edans gave the opening prayer. The choir was filled with men of the church.

"It is the responsibility of our laymen to live a life that his son or daughter will want to pattern after—our responsibility to the home is righteous living," the speaker declared.

W. H. Smith gave a talk on "Our Responsibility to the Church."

"Our American way of life recognizes that the individual has the right to work when and where he wishes, the right to worship as he pleases, to speak his mind on any subject and to meet his fellowman on any peaceful purpose," Smith said.

The laymen will conduct the Wednesday evening prayer service. Byron W. Harwell will be the teacher this Wednesday.

SIXTEEN BAPTIZED AT FIRST BAPTIST ON SUNDAY NIGHT

Sixteen were baptized Sunday night by Rev. Jared I. Cartlidge, pastor, following the regular evening service at the First Baptist church. Five united with the church Sunday, three by letter and two as candidates for baptism. Rev. Mr. Cartlidge brought both messages Sunday.

There were 692 in Sunday school and 224 in Training Union.

T. L. Tyson taught the Sunday school course of study for teachers and Sunday school officers at 6:30 o'clock Sunday evening.

The WMS met in regular monthly business session Monday afternoon.

A Sunday school study course begins at the church Monday at 7 p. m. and continues through Friday evening.

Dr. G S Hopkins, Dallas, member of the Sunday school board, will be the speaker at the Wednesday evening prayer meeting hour.

Mrs. Robert Stell, Mrs. B. D. DaShiell, Miss Marie Waltman, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Waltman of Houston and Mrs. John K. Emerson of Greely, Colo., were in Waxahachie on Sunday to visit in the home of the Edward Waltmans.

NOTICE!

To Subscribers and Friends of the Corsicana Daily Sun

Because of the increased cost of newsprint, general advances in payrolls and higher prices of all materials and services that go into making a newspaper, and to be able to continue to give the public a high class newspaper as heretofore, it is necessary for the Corsicana Daily Sun to increase its subscription prices beginning November 1, 1946, as follows:

One Month . . $1.25
One Year In Advance $12.50
IN NAVARRO COUNTY
OUT OF COUNTY $1.35 MONTH
$13.50 12 MONTHS IN ADVANCE

All subscriptions that expire November 1, 1946, and thereafter, will be at this new rate. This slight raise in subscription price is less than other newspapers over the nation are charging to meet the present conditions, and we feel sure our subscribers will be glad to co-operate so we may continue to give them a good newspaper.

The increased cost of newsprint alone, to say nothing of other substantial increases in publishing a newspaper, has advanced over 65% within the past few months.

Increasing subscription prices is something that all newspapers avoid as long as possible and put into effect with the greatest reluctance. A basic theory of modern newspaper making is to keep the price of the newspaper to the subscriber — even though it is one of the cheapest of all essentials of living — as low as consistently possible at all times.

Such has been the policy of the Corsicana Daily Sun.

The Daily Sun would like to avoid increasing subscription rates now but it cannot.

Economic needs cannot be ignored if we are to carry on.

Appreciating the patronage and friendship of our many thousands of loyal subscribers, we are—

CORSICANA, TEX., OCT. 22, 1946

R. F. D.

Rural free delivery, practically taken for granted these days, is only 50 years old. It was started in three West Virginia communities and developed slowly. After 11 years there were only 82 routes, covering 1,800 miles, operated at an annual cost of $15,000. Today there are approximately 33,000 rural mail carriers who travel 436 million miles to serve 30 million persons. More than half of the nation's 3,070 counties have the service. While the average route is 44 miles, the longest run, out of Edinburg, Tex., is almost 100 miles. A tough job at first, the work was carried on usually as a part-time occupation by farmers in horse-drawn buggies heated in winter with charcoal burners. The good roads program and the automobile, the one working on the other, plus farm-vote pressure on Congress, pushed the great service to its present proportions.

Rural free delivery has bound the farmer to the city, stimulated commerce between the two and has been a unifying force for the nation. This is a great accomplishment for 50 years.

HALLOWEEN CARNIVAL

A small town once had an idea for beating the problem of Halloween dirty work. The idea was so successful that this year on the holiday Anoka, Minnesota, will hold its twenty-fifth Halloween festival, and the civic leaders will be surprised if they wake up to as much as a soaped window the next day.

The Anoka carnival is so much fun, with so much happening to fill all the time from six to midnight on the night of ghosts, that the kids are too busy to run wild. In other towns they often feel it practically their duty to revel in deviltry. A costume parade, street dance, vaudeville acts, bobbing for apples and a pie-eating contest are the chief events of the evening in Anoka.

Family Halloween parties given with the same aim are a help, but when a whole neighborhood or town gets behind a carnival, it's bound to provide a good celebration and discourage the traditional wrecking parties.

ISOLATION?

Friend Stalin, according to the judgment of Feminine Pundit Dorothy Thompson, is aiming "to isolate the United States." And that procedure, if we rightly grasp the situation, will take some isolating.

So far as we can see, from our random excursions into American history, nobody has ever succeeded in isolating Uncle Sam, or any considerable segment of him, from anything into which he felt like venturing. Not that Uncle is much given to rash and brash instrusions; but in his history so far he has never seemed to enjoy being on the outside of anything, looking in; and it doesn't seem likely that he will change his habits much.

In all probability, nobody can any more isolate this country than he can isolate Russia. It might be nip and tuck for a while between these two giants. But the one sure thing is that Uncle Sam never backs down; and when he tackles anything, he goes through with it.

This is just for Friend Stalin's information. We're not really expecting any trouble in that quarter. And so far as we know, our two nations will probably remain as sensible toward each other as they have done so far. As for "isolating" us, he might as well undertake to isolate the north wind.

TULIP PLANTER.

I passed a row of dwellings small
The war had left behind.
"Cheap, dismal places, one and all!"
Went flashing through my mind.

But one was kept with tender care,
The patch of lawn was trim,
And some man's wife was planting there
A bit of charm for him.

Love brightens places bleak and bare
With many a pretty thing;
And so there will be tulips there,
Red tulips, in the spring.

THE HANDICAPPED

The custom grows of designating special weeks to focus public attention on certain matters. Just passed is Employ-the-Handicapped-Week during which industry was reminded that 90 per cent of the country's handicapped are employable, able to compete in the general labor market. Jobs for war-wounded were stressed particularly. Demonstrations of actual shop procedures were staged in many cities showing blind, amputees and other cripples successfully carrying out valuable projects.

Employing the handicapped not only offers independence and self-respect to these individuals, but these people provide a sound labor reservoir for the nation at this time of greatly increased production needs.

CLUBWOMEN

This is the time of year when Mother leaves the lunch dishes to dry themselves in the drainer, dons her best bib and tucker, and sallies forth to her club meeting. The new program is ready, the new president is anxious to show the membership how well she can handle the business, and with first meeting over, the club year is in full swing.

Whether the organization is a garden club, planning to plant and landscape a small park to beautify an intersection, a PTA earning money to furnish milk for school children, or a branch of the League of Women Voters busy with an educational campaign for the enlightenment of the electorate, the aims of the clubwomen are worthy ones, and are tackled in an energetic efficient manner.

When Mother returns, to take a well-cooked meal out of the electric roaster or to prepare one in jig time in the pressure cooker, she has much to bring to her family at the dinner table besides food. She has a broader outlook on world affairs and a fresher viewpoint from which to study family problems than did her grandmother, whose world was bounded by her own four walls.

CROWDING

The biggest poblem in America today is the house problem, and the most lamentable victims seem to be the children. Not only do thousands of them lack enough room to play, but many, especially in the larger cities, don't even seem to have enough room to sleep. Their quarters are too cramped both indoors and outdoors. A report from one city the other day told of a mother, grandmother and two-year-old girl walking about the city for hours seeking a place to sleep, and finally finding refuge in a police station. They were decent and respectable people, but as in a famous example, there was no room for them even in the inn.

Such situations are inevitable in thousands of cases, perhaps, in the early stages of disbanding armies; but surely it should not last so long and impose hardships on so many people. Children particularly should be properly cared for—no matter whose children they are.

It is well not to have your expectations raised unduly. A line outside a store does not mean that inside they are selling pork chops.

War talk, war talk everywhere, by those who seldom think.

position, the 1946 crop is the shortest in 50 years, postwar domestic consumption continues high and exports are increasing.

No Stampede Urged

"Farmers should not be stampeded into dumping their cotton on the market, which would further demoralize it," Williamson said.

At the start of the market here today the tone was irregular with opening prices $3 to $10.00 a bale lower, and May, July and Oct. at the $10 a bale limit. Other months then followed.

Heavy buying marked the reopening. Traders considered it a continuance of selling of the past three sessions when the market hit the $10 limit on each day.

Whether other brokers lost in the week-end liquidation of the large operator was undetermined, as no records were made public by the exchange.

All Markets Reopen

The New Orleans market resumed operations today along with the New York, Chicago and Dallas exchanges.

Opening prices were: Dec. 32.60 cents a pound, March 32.21, May 31.02, July 29.45 and Oct. 26.36.

President D. T. Manget, Jr., of the New Orleans exchange, announced last night that one operator whose selling accounted for most of the break liquidated his holdings over the week-end. The operator was identified only as "a single large long interest."

The exchange president said in a formal statement that the "rapid liquidation" of the long interest "greatly augumented" trading in futures and that the boards of directors of the New Orleans and New York exchanges decided to close the market Saturday so that "the means of facilitating the liquidation of the remainder of this position" could be studied.

Liquidation Completed

"Over the week-end the liquidation of this interest has been completed," Manget's statement said.

The closing of the exchanges followed a heavy selling wave which hit the market at mid-week and continued through Friday. Prices broke $25 or more a bale during the three days although the government's crop forecast of less than 9,000,000 bales was one of the shortest crop estimates in a quarter of a century.

Reports from New York identified the operator as a New Orleans man but cotton circles here would not comment on his identity.

During the break Senator Elmer Thomas (D-Okla.), chairman of the senate agriculture committee blamed the sharp decline on a plan by the exchanges, brokers and their clients and was the result of a "bear raid."

This was denied by both the New Orleans and New York exchanges which offered to open their books and records for any official investigation.

Meanwhile, in Greenville, Miss., a house of representatives subcommittee on cotton issued a statement saying that "other than activities of gamblers, we have been unable to justify the drastic break which took place in the cotton market last week."

The statement of the committee which is composed of representatives Stephen Pace of Georgia, chairman, W. R. Poage of Texas, Tom Abernathy of Mississippi and George Grant of Alabama, urged farmers to hold their cotton off the market to correct the recent price break.

Dallas Levels Off.

DALLAS, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Trading on the Dallas cotton exchange levelled off by mid-morning today and the storm which swept the cotton market last week and closed the exchanges completely Saturday appeared to be over, Karl Hunt, secretary of the Dallas exchange, said at noon.

Trading was extremely light on the Dallas exchange, with only some 2,000 bales sold as compared to a normal day of 15,000 bales, Hunt said. The market still was extremely weak, having dropped the limit of $10 a bale in the first five minutes of trading after the exchange opened, Hunt said.

and the Socialist Unity Party only 19.6 percent.

Balloting Is Heavy

Balloting, by straight ticket only, was heavy and orderly. There were 2,349,722 eligible voters. By 10:30 a. m. (4:30 a. m. EST), 1,945,938 valid votes had been tabulated. Void ballots then numbered 37,272.

Before the election, Lt. Col. Louis Glaser, political affairs chief of the United States military government's Berlin branch, said the issue clearly lay between eastern and western political philosophies.

"Germany must ultimately make a decision in this respect," he said. "The Berlin vote, establishing such a decision, will have great influence upon the ultimate destiny of Germany, and therefore upon the political destiny of Europe."

Communist Campaign Strong

This party, formed in the Russian zone by a fusion of Communists and social Democrats, waged a stronger campaign than other parties because it had more apper and other material advantages.

In campaigning, it claimed time and again that it carried more weight with the Soviet military administration than any other party.

The SED had claimed that the Social Democrats would show strength only in the American and British sectors. But an early breakdown of the vote made it plain that they were strong all over the city and whipped the SED even in some important districts of the Soviet sector.

Teams Watch For Fraud

Inspection teams representing the four occupying powers—the U. S., Britain, France and Russia—toured the city watching for fraud.

Social Democratic party officials registered a complaint that SED followers were tearing down or pasting over SPD posters. Some observers said they saw children ripping down all but SED bills.

MISSIONARY BAPTIST ANNOUNCE CHANGE IN HOURS OF MEETING

The hour of meeting in the day service of the revival at the Missionary Baptist church has been changed. The day services will be held at 2:00 p. m. instead of 10:00 a. m. as originally announced. This change has been made to accommodate the workers who plan an extensive enlistment drive during the meeting. Services will be held from two until three o'clock and then the workers will go afield for visitations

Large congregations attended the service Sunday and there were two additions to the church, one uniting with the church at the morning hour by baptism and one at the evening service by letter.

The evangelistic helpers, Dr. L. D. Foreman, of Little Rock, who will do the preaching, and song director, Rev. Earl resswell, Snyder pastor, are due to arrive for services today.

The public is cordially invited to attend these services at 2 p. m. and 7:30 p. m.

REP. TEAGUE MAKES NOMINATION; MAIL RISING STEADILY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Mrs. Bonnie L. Langford has been recommended by Rep. Olin Teague (D-Tex) for appointment to the postmastership at Mertens.

Every day sees an increase in the mail which comes into the office of Rep. Teague, Texas' newest congressman. From a beginning of two or three letters a day, it now has risen to more than a score.

Two farm officials from College Station here for a national conference of agriculture leaders were guests of Teague at lunch in the House Office Building cafeteria. They were C. A. Bonen, Experiment Station farm management research expert, and C. H. Bates, farm management official of the Extension Service. Also with them at the lunch was Ernest Holcomb, who was a classmate of Teague's at Texas A. and M. in the class of '32. Holcomb is with the Production and Marketing administration in the Agriculture Department.

A practice which is all too common it to treat any skin disease which may appear with home remedies, following the advice of any good friend who seems to speak with authority..

This is a serious error. The skin is a true refletcion of what goes on beneath it. Whatever may appear on the surface indicates a condition of the blood-stream and requires skilled medical advice and treatment.

Blemishes and eruptions, spreading rashes, discolorations such as psoriasis, all should be treated scientifically.

Obtain sound advice from a physician and take his prescription to a pharmacist of known ability and trustworthiness.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT SET FOR METHODIST FINAL CONFERENCE

The fourth and last quarterly conference for this year of the First Methodist church will be held Wednesday night starting at 7:30, with the Rev. Finis A. Crutchfield, district superintendent, in charge. This is an important business meeting for the church as all officers will be present and written reports of the work done the past year will be given.

Next Sunday, the last Sunday of the conference year, will be observed as Loyalty day. The pastor the Rev. Erwin F. Bohmfalk, will complete his fourth year as pastor and a special effort is being made to get out a large attendance at both services.

Sunday was observed as envelope distribution day. Following the morning church hour, men workers and their wives met for a covered dish luncheon after which some 35 workers covered the city, calling on about five hundred Methodist families, leaving envelopes for next year's budget, and other printed information about the work of the church. M. H. Statham was chairman of this work and instructions were given by the pastor.

The pastor preached at both church hours. Special music at the morning hour was an anthem by the choir and a solo by Foy L. Garrett. At night in addition to the anthem the choral choir under direction of Mrs. Summers gave special numbers. The morning subject was "Making Religion Personal;" night, "The Reality of Christ." Dr. H. B. Love presided in the adult department. He gave figures showing that the classes in this department have raised for all purposes over $3 000 this year. In the Brotherhood Class Tom Eady was elected regular teacher and H. A. Garland, president. Boy Scouts meet tonight. Choir rehearsal Wednesday night. Directors of the Men's dinner Club meet Tuesday night.

SEVERAL PERSONS SEEKING EXECUTIVE RENT CONTROL POST

The $3,750 annual salary of the Corsicana rent control executive post had several applicants it was learned Monday.

J. C. Calloway, district board supervisor of the Price Control Board Monday stymied rumors that he was an applicant for the post.

J. S. Murchison, price chairman who is serving now without pay, former Corsicana mayor, said that he had "been asked to apply." He did not designate the group who had requested his application be submitted.

In the meantime civil service requirements stepped into the picture as the OPA personnel department sought two investigators and two secretaries.

So far as could be learned Monday the district office had not approved or rejected recommendations for the five posts.

WOMAN'S-EYE VIEW OF ARMY AIR SHOW MADDENING TO NEIGHBORS, BUT SHE IS SURE SHE'S RIGHT

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD

DALALS, Tex., Oct. 21—(AP)—We went to the big Army Air Show here yesterday. There were 20,000 people there but fate sat us beside a large woman if middle age who explained the whole performance to her 10-year-old daughter whom she called "Baby."

Although she bristled with confidence, never, during the entire afternoon, did she get anything right. The Army Air Forces would have shuddered to hear her.

For example:

"Lighter Than Clouds"

"That's a glider, baby, that thing with the funny nose.

"They don't have any engines or anything but they float on the air because they are lighter than clouds. Even, Sometimes they float clean across the Atlantic ocean. The army uses them because they're so cheap."

As a stunt, three B-29s flew over, each with two of their props stilled.

"That's the way they save gasoline, Baby. They run two of these motors until they give out of gas, and then they run the other two. It saves a lot of money."

"Trees Much Softer"

A P51 pursued a mock enemy and its machine gun chattered.

"Listen to that, Baby. The man's having motor trouble."

A number of parachutists spilled out of a transport plane and floated earthward. The woman commented:

"If there was any trees around here, they would try to light in them—they light in trees when they can because it's so much softer.

"Speed Builds Up"

She also explained to Baby that parachutists "hit a lot harder when they fall from up there in the atmosphere because the higher they jump from the more speed they build up."

She added that paratropoers "never wear neckties because of they did the neckties might get caught in the parachute and choke them to death."

Later, the mother revealed to her daughter that the nylon tow rope used for launching gliders "is just like a lot of stockings tied together" and that fast flying gives pilots "liver weakness."

"Little Flame Used"

And then the P-80 jet planes whizzed past.

"Look how easy they go, Baby, and to think that all that makes them run is a little old gas flame just like in a refrigerator."

That was too much.

"You have that all wrong," we told the woman.

She looked at us narrowly.

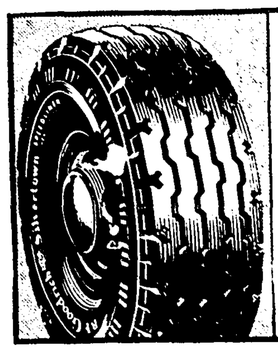

"Do you have a son in the Air Force?" she inquired.

Negro Is Charged In Connection Stabbing

Johnny Lee Carroll, negro, was charged Monday in Judge W. H. Johnsons' court with assault with intent to murder in connection with the stabbing of Eddie Garrett, negro, in Corsicana Saturday.

Carroll made $1,500 bond Monday morning and was released. Garnett's condition was reported unchanged at P. and S. Hospital, where he is being treated for stab wounds in the chest.

An application for peace bond against Garnett by Carroll was filed shortly before the trouble Saturday. Carroll was arrested by city police and later transferred to custody of the county.

COLLECTION OF AD VALOREM TAXES TO BEGIN WEDNESDAY

Collection of current ad valorem taxes in Navarro county will begin Wednesday morning, Halley Blake, assessor and collector of Texes, stated Monday on her return from Austin where she carried the 1946 tax rolls for approval by the State Comptroller. Miss Blake said that the rolls could not be reached for approval Friday and Saturday, but that the approval was due Monday or Tuesday.

The rolls were approved by the commissioners court Thursday.

A three percent reduction in taxes, except on poll taxes, is allowed if paid in October. Atwo-percent allowance is provided for current taxes paid in November, and one-percent is allowed for December. Current taxes paid in January are not given any reduction, while if they are not paid before Feb. 1, they become delinquent and penalties and interest accrue.

Many tax payers, particularly banks, oil companies, railroads, utilities and other large payers, always seek to obtain the three percent reduction by remitting in October.

FT. WORTH BAPTIST MINISTER SUCCEEDS DR. DAWSON AT WACO

Corsicana Corral Club Rodeo To Be Staged This Week

With a cautious eye towards the sky, members of the Corsicana Corral Club began making preparations Monday for the third presentation of club rodeos on Oct. 23, 24 and 25.

A heavy rain last week forced the club to cancel scheduled performances Oct. 16-17. The change in plans for the offerings at the arena on new Highway 31 also added another night showing with the net proceeds from the rodeo Oct. 25 to go to the Corsicana Community Chest fund.

Fair weather for the remainder of the week has placed the arena in excellent shape for the non-profit orgization's performances. The proceeds from the first two shows will go towards retiring a $2,200 deft on the physical plant, which has been increased to 6,000 person capacity.

A gala street parade will be held at 4 p. m. Wednesday in the business section of the city. All riders are urged to participate to make this the greatest paraae in the history of rodeo in the county.

The club will offer nine fast events for fans. Bareback and saddle bronc riding are slated to be thrilling with riders using stock purchased from remudas used in the recent fair rodeo.

Entry fee for all contestants is $3 with fees added for winners. Shows will begin at 7:30 p. m. All profits over the amount needed to retire the arena indebtedness will go towards improvements on the grounds for future presentations.

Events on the program are bareback bronc riding, calf roping, saddle bronc riding, junior bull riding, wild cow milking, senior bull riding and three special events—men's chair race, calf belling and wild Brahman cow loving.

Parking space will be available at the arena. Ample seats will be reserved for colored.

Kieffer Family In England To Live Next Three Years

Mrs. R. S. McDonald has had a message from her granddaughter, Mrs. Wm. B. Kieffer, and children, John Brett and Kathy, stating that they have arrived in London, England, where they joined Col. Kieffer for a three year's stay.

Mrs. Kieffer and children landed in Bremerhaven, Germany, and went overland to Bremen. From Bremen, they accompanied Col. Kieffer to London by plane.

State Rehabilitation Official Coming Here

I. B. Gathings, counsellor for the state department for vocational rehabilitation, will be in Corsicana Wednesday for the purpose of interviewing physically handicapped persons in search of training and guidance for job opportunities.

Gathings will be at the local office of the U. S. Employment Service Wednesday morning, and will be available for interview during the balance of the day at the office of the public welfare department at the courthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McDonald and daughter, Josephine, of San Antonio were week-end visitors in the home of Mr. McDonald's mother, Mrs. R. S. McDonald. Mr. McDonald was en route to Chicago, Ill., on a business trip.

Imploring Fates For "Seven," But Police Made Point

They were imploring the fates for "seven," but the police department made the point.

There were seven duskies in the game as Policemen C. A. Patterson, J. B. Blair and K. A. Blakney made their entrance.

City Recorder Chris I. Knox made a five the hard way. Five dollars each for gaming, said the Judge.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Timid purchasing of steels gave the stock market a selectively brighter look today although many leaders were unresponsive and dealings exceptionally slow.

The ticker tape frequently was at a standstill.

The direction was notably cloudy during the greater part of the proceedings. The steels came to the fore in the final hour but failed to follow through. Gains of fractions to a point or so were in the majority at the close. Turnover of around 800,000 shares was one of the smallest for a full session since late August.

Gainers included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Continental Baking (on a sharp jump in net), Santa Fe, Sears Roebuck, Douglas Aircraft, Eastman Kodak, Philip Morris, and International Telephone.

On the offside were Youngstown Sheet, Montgomery Ward, Southern Pacific, Caterpillar Tractor, United Aircraft, American Smelting, American Can, Allied Chemical and U. S. Gypsum.

BISHOP H. A. BOAZ PRINCIPAL SPEAKER METHODIST DINNER

PROMINENT CHURCHMAN INTRODUCED BY REV. ERWIN F. BOHMFALK, PASTOR

By PAUL MOORE
Daily Sun Staff.

Bishop Hiram A. Boaz of Dallas was the principal speaker at the quarterly meeting of the Men's Dinner Club at the First Methodist Church educational building Thursday evening. Twelve new directors were selected for next year. Sam F. Werner was toastmaster. R. H. Doke is the retiring president. A record attendance was noted. The women of the church served the banquet. Several musical numbers were features of the program. The invocation was brought by Rev. Erwin F. Bohmfalk, pastor of the church, who also led in the sing-song and presented the sueaker of the evening. Mrs. Bohmfalk was the pianist for the sing-song.

New Directors

New directors are J. E. Davant, John McNutt, B. J. Stork, Lynn Sanders, Jr., R. C. Reeder, Curtis Keen, Jack Stroube, Phil Daviss, J. C. Roe, M. G. Young, W. B. Robinson and George McPherson. Holdover directors are T. M. George, Alton N. Justiss, George Elliot, Owen G. Elliott, R. E. Elliott, Joe B. Fortson, Jr.; Shelby Hicks, T. D. Hubbard, George T. Hudson, J E. King, John Rice, L. E. Riley and Elbert Walker. The new board of directors will meet Oct. 22 to elect officers for next year.

Te program committee in charge of the Thursday evening banquet was Chester Minyard, chairman; Charles T. Banister, C. D. George and T. D. Hubbard.

Miss Arliss Shell, whistling soloist, with Mrs. Sam B. Werner at th piano, rendered "Villa Song," anad "Indian Love Call."

Mrs. Ruth Penniman, Dallas, daughter of Bishop Boaz, well-known soloist and radio performer, gave "At Dawning" and "I Love Life," with Mrs. Werner as accompanist, and "Coming Home" as an encore.

Mrs. Jester Talks

The pastor referred to the ordination of Bishop Boaz in the First Methodist church in Corsicana 55 years ago. Only two members of the church remain who were active at that time, Mrs. J. S. Callicutt, who is in Florida, and Mrs. George T. Jester, an honor guest at the banquet. Mrs. Jester made a short talk about the life and work of the Bishop, and of the influence his career has meant in the spread of Christianity and the work of the church.

The bishop will be 80 years old in December and has been retired from active work, but is credited with raising an average of $80,000 per year for Southern Methodist University.

In the beginning of his address, the churchman emphasized that he did not want to criticize or "skin" anyone, and praised Corsicana as one of the most cultured and aristocratic cities of Texas. He spoke of his association with the late George T. Jester of Corsicana in the founding of Southern Methodist University in Dallas, and congratulated the local church for its sponsoring of such a dinner club for its men.

By Nature Social

After adding that man is by nature social, he spoke of the great utterances and truths imparted to his followers by Jesus Christ on various occasions at suppers and other social gatherings during his ministry on earth.

The bishop said the church of Jesus Christ was the greatest institution on earth and compared it with other organizations—social and fraternal—pointing out that the Church had to make a man an outstanding citizen before the other organizations would use him. He stressed the fact that the church would pick up the wrecked life of a man or woman from the gutter and make a good citizen and life of him. He termed the church of Jesus Christ as the softener and regenerato. of mankind.

Church Remains

"I'm not uneasy of the future of the Church of Jesus Christ," the churchman asserted, pointing out that nations rise and fall, but that the church remains because of its Divine founder, and quoted a Scripture where Jesus said

"On this rock I will build my church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

"Every good citizen should be a member of some church," the bishop continued, and then asked a question of what saved civilization from Hitler and the other international gangsters who sought to destroy the Christian way of life. He answered his own query with the declaration that the people who believe in God and Jesus Christ stood in the way, and overwhelmed those seeking to destroy the present civilization.

Bishop Boaz closed his address with an appeal for the giving of our best efforts to the church, the greatest organization on the earth.

The bishop pronounced the benediction.

Local Students At Meeting Of 10-AA District In Waco

Claire Kelton and Jimmie Copeland were in Waco on Saturday to attend a conference of District 10-AA schools which was held at Waco High school and had as its object to prepare a sportsmanship code for the district. The Corsicanans were accompanied to Waco by Miss Anna Belle Kiber, sponsor of the student council of Corsicana High school, and Mrs. J. R. Copeland.

According to Gene Carroll, president of council of Waco High school, who was elected president of the district organization, "the idea is to get the schools and the student bodies better acquainted with each other. We hope to work out ideas for getting the students together before and after sports events for speaking events, band contests and so on."

Others elected to serve with the new president were Bill Tanner of Bryan, vice president, and Betty Sharpley of Corsicana, secretary and treasurer.

After the conference at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, luncheon was served in the economics room of the Waco High school, and visitors toured the city in the afternoon.

Attending the conference were representatives from Temple, Waco, Ennis, Bryan and Corsicana High schools. Others eligible, but who were not represented, included Cleburne, Waxahachie and Hillsboro High schools.

Assembly program on Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock at Corsicana High school will be directed by the local council, and the code of sportsmanship will be read at that time if it has been completed.

Marine Corps Seeking Men 17-30 Years Old

Men between the ages of 17 and 30 years, and older if ex-service men, are sought for enlistment in the U. S. Marine Corps for three and four year service, according to Platoon Sergeant Euell L. White of Waco, who is maintaining a recruiting office in the post office building here this week. The office is open from 8 a. m. to 6:30 p. m. daily through Saturday, the sergeant stated.

Sergeant White spent last week recruiting at Hillsboro and next week will be in Mexia.

"India—Pioneer in the New Orient" will be the subject of Dr. Matthew Arnold's Forum on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at Third Avenue Presbyterian Church. The discussion will be the third in a series of four on the general theme, "Spotlighting the International Scene."

LIGHTER LOCALS UNABLE TO MATCH VISITING ELEVEN

HARRY RAGONE AND TOM MARINELLI LEAD VISITING OFFENSIVE PARADE

By PAUL MOORE
Sun Sports Editor

A heavier, bigger and more rugged Galveston All-Star aggregation defeated the Navarro Junior Collee Bulldogs at Tiger Field Saturday night, 15-0, in one of the hardest-fought games seen in years at this historic football field. Paced by hard-running and passing Harry Ragone and Tom Marinelli, the visiting combination hammered at the Bulldogs goal line on several occasions, and nothing but an alert and scrapping local combination kept the game being turned into a riot. Navarro deserve a big hand for keeping the score low.

Things started off well with the Navarro boys providing fine interference and J. C. Collier sped 22 yards at left end and a first down when Sparky Adams cut down a would-be tackler in a sensational exhibition of blocking.

The teams were scrapping on even terms and it appeared that neither were threatening when Navarro was forced to punt.

Opening Score

Ragone took the punt on his 30 and shot back down the field like an express train, gathering speed and momentum as his mates provided some interference and down the field for 70 yards and the touchdown that won the ball game was the result. Monford missed his attempted drop-kick for conversion. In the second period it was a forward pass from Ragone to Mullens that provided the second marker with Monford drop-kicking the extra point. The final score came in the third period when Collier was downed behind his goal on a bad pass from center.

The Navarro lads fought threats throughout the last half and drew the unstinted praise of the grid enthusiasts who saw their game struggle with their more powerful and heavier opponents.

Navarro Big Stand

Early in the third period, Galveston gained the ball on her 32 and a first down move it to the 42. A pass, Marinelli to Manning, was good for 22 yards to the Corsicana 20. A pass to Bertolino was completed to the Navarro 7 and Bertolino hit the line to the four, but Galveston drew a 5-yard penalty and after a penalty and loss had apparently stopped the drive, the visitors hammered back down to the Navarro 4 where it went over on downs.

Navarro punted out but again the visitors drove down to the Corsicana 1 when the safety was recorded.

Starting Lineups

Navarro—Garland and Gaines, ends; Phillips and Holditch, tackles; Anderson and White, guards; Raby, center; Adams, quarterback; Cellier and Thornton, halves; Mathews, full back.

Galveston—Manning and Mallini, ends; Schuster and Schaper, tackles; Monford and Mascorro, guards; Beach, center; Reed, quarterback; Ragone and Roy, halves; and Richardson, fullback.

Substitutes: Navarro — Bryant, Shelton, Gillen, Blissett, Frost, Malone, Ivey, Brackin Burnham, Watson, Rehder; Hayes, Pytman, Jordan, Lawrence, Smyrl, and Prine. Galveston—Gallatti, Berg, Curtis, Schmiedberg, Gulotta, Bolton, Mullen, Bertolino, Barker Meadows, Magnini, Marinelli and Kahled.

Statistics

Yards rushing—Galveston 145, Navarro 62.

Yards lost rushing — Galveston, 44, Navarro 23.

First downs—Galveston 12, Navarro 6.

Passes completed: Galveston 6 for 143 yards gain, 14 incomplete, 1 intercepted; Navarro completed 2 for 33 yards gain, 19 incomplete, 1 intercepted.

Punts—Galveston 6 for 203 yards, average 34 yards; Navarro 12 for 361 yards, average 30 (including one blocked).

Penalties: Navarro 5 for 55 yards loss; Galveston 12 for 90 yards loss.

Score by Periods:

Kerens Bobcats Win Over Mildred 37-0

KERENS, Oct. 21—(Spl)—Kerens Bobcats broke back into the win column of District 23-B Friday afternoon by defeating the Mildred Eagles, 37-0. The Bobcats mixed running and passing attacks that showed a diversified offense. The Bobcats were barely nosed out by the State Home the previous week, 7-2, in a torrid tussle staged at Garitty Field, Corsicana.

Kerens completed 10 of 12 passes attempted nad rolled up 16 first downs as compared with three for the Eagles.

L. Holloway accounted for the first touchdown on a brilliant punt return of 85 yards early in the first period and passed to two markers, one to Dick Marshall for 30 vards and another to Doug Cunningham, sub end, for 15 yards. Glynn Holloway made the second touchdown of the game on a 5-yard end sweep after a sustained drive led by Red Earle had placed the ball in the scoring position. Earle plunged eight yards to culminate a 60-vard drive later in the game, after he had scored earlier on a plunge for his first marker.

The Kerens starters were Murphey and Almandarez, ends; Seale and Johnson, tackles; Marshall and Burleson, guards; Saunders, quarterback; Glynn Holloway and Earle, halves; L. Holloway, fullback. Each boy on the squad was substituted in the game.

CARD OF THANKS.

May we take this method of thanking you, our friends and neighbors, for your many acts and deeds of kindness shown us during the illness and death of our dear mother and grandmother, Mrs. Cathryn A. Coley. We especially thank Drs. Burnett, Newton and David for their kindness, also Bro. G. H. Vaughn for his comforting words. Words cannot express our appreciation for your sympathy. In your hours of sorrow may you have just such comfort, is our prayer.—Mrs. George Knight, Mrs. Arthur Rea, Mrs. Andy Boren, Mrs. T. F. Coley and Families.

STREETMAN RITES HELD SUNDAY FOR STERLING SIMS

Sterling Sims, aged 77 years, long-time resident of Streetman, died in a Dallas hospital at 11:50 a. m. Saturday from a heart attack. He had underwent a minor operation a few days before his death.

Funeral services were held from the First Baptist church in Streetman Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock with burial in the Cotton Gin cemetery. The rites were conducted by Rev. Fred Janeway, Wacc, and Rev. M. O. Southerland, pastor of the church.

Surviving are his wife of Streetman; a daughter, Mrs. A. D. Morrow, Wortham; three sons, Ralph, John E., and George A. Sims, all of Streetman; 10 grandchildren, and two sisters, Mrs. J. C. Chumney and Mrs. E. V. Headley, both of Teague, and other relatives.

Corley Funeral Home directed.

Mrs. Carl Frost and Mrs. Clyde Anderson of Richland are attending the Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star, meeting in Houston this week.

EAST TEXAS LEAGUE PROGRAM CALLS FOR TWO FULL CIRCUITS

PROPOSAL ACCEPTED AT SUNDAY SESSION; WOULD RAISE RATING

LONGVIEW, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Tentative plans for operation of two circuits next year were made here yesterday by officials of the East Texas Baseball League.

The group also voted to seek a change in the league's classification from Class C to Class B.

Representatives of Wichita Falls, Waco, Kilgore, Bryan, Corsicana, Longview, Temple and Marshall attended the meeting and said their cities would be able to operate clubs during the 1947 season.

An Austin representative stated that lack of a ball park prevented that city making a commitment at present.

Under a tentative plan, the 1947 season would find Sherman, Wichita Falls, Greenville, Paris, Texarkana, Longview, Marshall and Waco in a Class B loop, and Lufkin, Jacksonville, Tyler, Henderson, Kilgore, Bryan, Corsicana and Temple in a Class C circuit.

No decision was reached on proposed transfer of the present Tyler franchise to Longview and the Jacksonville franchise to an unannounced city.

The group will meet again at Kilgore Oct. 27.

Territo Local Representative.

Louis Territo, local city bus company owner and operator, was the Corsicana representative Sunday at the meeting of the East Texas League in the Hilton Hotel in Longview.

Territo applied for a loop franchise in late summer and was invited to attend the business meeting. He disclosed Monday that four club owners had been named to inspect the territory of possible additions to the loop and to determine if they can get started in time for next season.

Ball Park Needed.

Major problem before the new organizations will be the construction of a ball park. Corsicana does not have a physical plant, but Territo said earlier that an architest was drafting plans and a ball park would be available for Corsicana if the franchise is approved.

Many of the representatives present for the meeting came without power to agree to a franchise in their cities and a meeting will be held next Sunday in Kilgore at which time the advisability of a new loop will be determined.

Territo said the present East Texas League owners were in favor of advancing to a Class B category with the new league to be a Class C unit. A possible name for the new loop would be the Central Texas League or the Central-East Texas League.

Yams' Use During Special Week Gets Boost In Recipes

Since Gov. Coke Stevenson has proclaimed the week of October 20 to 26 as Yam Week, and has asked all citizens of Texas to cooperate by using yams and yam products, home and hotel dining rooms all over the nation will feature yams on their menus as part of the observance.

In these days of sugar rationing, recipes for dishes requiring little or no sweetening, are being welcomed by the housewife and all others responsible for meals.

Yam Yummies.

YAM FANS—Fry semi-circles of canned pincapple in butter, drain and place one in each baked potato opening with the round side up. Serve as a border around a platter of chicken or ham.

GOLDEN SPICED YAMS—Peel and cut yams in sticks one-half inch thick. Drop sticks into fat one-half inch deep, smoking hot. When golden brown, lower flame and cook until done; test with fork. Sticks may then be rolled in powdered sugar and spices.

YAM SURPRISE—Three c. mashed yams; 1-2 c. sugar; 1-4 to 1-2 c. thin cream; 1 egg; 3-4 c. grated cocoanut; 1-2 tsp. salt; markshmallows. Add cream to the yam, being careful not to use too much; add sugar, salt and beaten egg and cocoanut. Let stand until cool. Press a marshmallow into center of portion of the yam mixture and form into a ball. Roll in beaten egg, then in bread crumbs and fry in deep fat. Drain on brown paper and serve while hot.

YAM DELICIOUS—1 can sliced pineapple; 3 c. mashed yams; 1-3 c. sugar; 1 c. cream; 1-2 tsp. salt; 4 tsp. butter. Saute the pineapple in the butter. Season mashed yams with the sugar, salt and cream. Place with slices of pineapple in a pan, arrange in a serving of mashed potatoes on each slice of pineapple; garnish with pecans or marshmallows, place in moderate oven and cook until a golden brown. Pecans, raisins and cocoanut may be added to the mashed yams.

MAKING PLANS CALL BEER ELECTION IN COUNTY EARLY DATE

Navarro county voters are expected to have the opportunity of determining whether or not the sale of beer will become legal in this county within the near future.

P. H. Robeson of Corsicana has filed a formal application for a certified petition for a beer election in the office of Mable Wilkinson, county clerk, and it is understood the petitions are being circulated for signatures.

While no official announcement has been made, it is understood that the petitions securing the required number of signers will be returned to the clerk's office in a few days for official checking against the poll tax lists. It is expected that the formal application for the beer election call will be presented the commissioners court at its regular meeting November 1.

Fox Hunters Meeting Is Largely Attended

Several hundred sportsmen attended the annual Navarro County Fox and Wolf Hunters Association barbecue-meeting in the Pickett community Friday night.

A. P. Mays, district judge, was the principal speaker. A bench show was held at 8 p. m. The hounds were turned loose after the program for a number of fox chases.

An added feature was a fiddle band from Emmett.

Fred M. Copeland, Pursley, county commissioner, is president of the Fox Hunters Association.

AWARDED HIGH HONORS—Four Boy Scouts from State Home School troops will be awarded the coveted Eagle Scout rank at the Navarro District Court of Honor at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in the Educational building of the First Methodist church. They are, left to right, Edwin Mitchell, Troop 286; Scoutmaster E. E. Collin, troops 285 and 286; Loveless Redding, Troop 285, and James Graham, Troop 285.

THREE SCOUTS, SCOUTMASTER OF STATE HOME TO RECEIVE EAGLE RANK TUESDAY COURT OF HONOR

The results of years of work will be recognized at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday at the Navarro District Boy Scout Court of Honor in the Educational building of the First Methodist church when three Scouts and the Scoutmaster of Corsicana State Home school troops are awarded the coveted Eagle Scout rank.

The distiguished Eagle badge will be pinned on Scoutmaster E. E. Collins, a tireless worker who has directed the two Home troops, 285 and 286; Edwin Mitchell of Troop 286, Loveless Redding of Troop 285, and James Graham of Troop 285.

High Point in Scouting.

The high point in a Scouting career has been reached by the four through diligent and untiring efforts. Requirements for the badge are the earning of 21 merit badges, many of which are repuired.

Edwin Mitchell, an 18-year old senior at the Home, joined the Boy Scouts of America in 1941. He became a second class Scout in Troop 286, Circle Ten Council, at the Home in 1942, a First Class Scout in 1943, a Star Scout in 1944, a Life Scout on March 27, 1945, and an Eagle Scout Oct. 1, 1946. During his climb to the Eagle position, he served his troop as scribe, patrol leader, and senior patrol leader.

Loveless Redding, a 16-year old junior at State Home school, joined Troop 285 in December of 1942. The next year he rose to the rank of Second Class and became a First Class Scout in February, 1945. The Star rank was attained on Sept. 25, 1945, and on July 22, 1946, he finished the requirements for Eagle. He has held the position of patrol leader in Troop 285 and senior patrol leader of Troops 285 and 286.

A 16-year old sophomore, James Graham, joined the Scouts as a member of Troop 285, a unit in Circle Ten Council, Navarro District, on Sept. 17, 1942. He became a Second Class Scout Jan. 26, 1943, a First Class Scout on March 22, 1944, a Star Scout Jan. 22, 1945, a Life Scout on March 11, 1946, and finished his Eagle requirements Oct. 1, 1946. He served in the capacity of patrol leader in Troop 285.

Tom D. Bailey, chairman of the Navarro district, will be in charge of the Court, and will have the assistance of Guy Henry, advancement chairman, and Alvin Marks, chairman of the Court of Honor. Scoutmasters are urged to have all Scouts and their parents present.

JR. COLLEGE PREXY AUTHORIZED TO ACT IN VETS' AFFAIRS

Ray L. Waller, president of Navarro Junior college, was authorized to act for the school in all Veterans Administration affairs by the board of trustees of the district in a meeting Thursday at 5 p. m. at the school.

The awarding of a Veterans Guidance Center for a number of adjacent counties to Navarro Junior college was explained to the trustees by Waller and he was told to conduct all business with the federal agency.

Orders for books for the school library are being filled in part, the president reported, and said that the library should be complete within sixty days.

The arrival of one bus and the probability of the arrival of another at the end of the week was disclosed by Waller, who also related his efforts to obtain further surplus property from the government.

Present for the meeting were O. L. Albritton, chairman; L. K. Carraway, L. B. Bonner, and Curtis Patterson.

Over 25 Hundred Cash Customers At Football Game

A total of 2,539 paying customers came through the turnstiles Friday night at the Tiger-Hillsboro game on Tiger Field, R. A. Armistead, principal of Senior High school, revealed Saturday morning.

Of the number, 1,530 were adults and 1,009 were students. Armistead estimated another 500 were in the stands by virtue of participation on football squads and other organizations given passes.

Prizes Are Offered In Army Poster Contest

Artistically minded high school students in Navarro County will have a chance to show their wares with the announcement from the local Army Recruiting sub-station of a poster contest sponsored by the recruiting corps.

The contestants over the state submitting the three best posters will receive $50, first prize; $25, second prize; and $15 as third prize money. Deadline for entrants is midnight, Nov. 5.

The winning posters will be forwarded to recruiting officials at Governor's Island, New York for possible use on a national scale. Posters will be judged on art work and advertising value to the recruiting program.

Posters must be mailed to the Dallas U. S. Army Recruiting Office, Santa Fe Building, Dallas, 2, Texas.

The committee of judges will be Ed Bearden, assistant director of the Dallas Museum of Fine Arts and art instructor at Southern Methodist university; Tom Grimes business manager of the Dallas Museum of Fine Arts and an art instructor at Southern Methodist university; and Marvin Dreiger, art driector at Rogers and Smith advertising agency.

S-Sgt. Robert J. Whorton, Corsicana route four, has been discharged from the service at the personnel center at Ft. Sam Houston, according to announcement by the army public relations office.

ACTIVE CAMPAIGN IS BEING PLANNED HERE FOR ROAD AMENDMENT

EFFORT WILL BE MADE TO SECURE LARGE VOTE —COMMITTEE NAMED

Plans were outlined for an intensive campaign in the interest of the good roads amendment proposal at the general election Nov. 5 for Navarro county Friday morning.

J. F. Adams, Corsicana, county good roads amendment campaign committee chairman, presided at the meeting held at the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce. He pointed out the desirability on the part of those interested in the amendment, including Governor-Nominate Beauford H. Jester of Corsicana, to put the roads and school gasoline levies into the constitution of Texas so that no future legislature or group could divert the revenue to some other purpose. (The present procedure of the 4-cent gasoline tax involved is for the legislature to re-enact every two years the road bond indebtedness law, etc., and those in favor of the amendment want to put it outside the lawmakers hands and into the constitution.)

Seek Large Vote.

The county committee desires a large vote. The Junior Chamber of Commerce will distribute literature relative to the campaign.

Those interested in the proposed amendment point out and stress the fact that there will not be any additional taxes levied against the gasoline. The present amount, four cents, will remain. (Three cents goes to the roads and one cent to schools under the present plan in operation and this is not disturbed in the proposed amendment enactment.)

The proposition is for or against: "The amendment to the constitution of the state providing that subject to legislative appropriation, allocation and direction all net revenues derived from taxes, except gross production and ad valorem taxes, levied on motor fuels and lubricants and motor vehicle registration fees shall be used for the sole purpose of acquiring rights-of-way for and constructing and maintaining public roadways; for the administration of laws pertaining to traffic and safety; and for the payment of principal and interest on county and road district bonds or warrants voted or issued prior to Jan. 2, 1939, and declared eligible for debt service prior to Jan. 2, 1945, providing one-fourth (1-4) of such net revenue from the motor fuel tax shall be allocated to the available school fund; providing and insuring that each county shall never derive less revenue from motor registration fees than the maximum amounts and percentages of such fees allowed to be retained by each county under the laws in effect on Jan. 1, 1945; and negativing any interpretation of this amendment as authorizing the pledging of the state's credit for anp purpose."

County Revenues.

A majority of the revenues accruing to Navarro county's road and bridge fund yearly comes from the registration of motor vehicles. The proposed amendment would protect the approximately $80,000 yearly from that source in addition to the guaranteeing that the assumption of principal and interest of most of the road district bonds in Navarro county by the state board of county and district road indebtedness will continue in the future and not be necessary to have a legislature to re-enact the measure each two years. The one-fourth of the revenue to the available school fund is also a large and important item to the entire state school set-up.

The county set-up favoring the amendment as announced by Chairman Adams include:

Committees.

Ray L. Waller, president of the Navarro Junior College and the Navarro County Teachers Association, vice chairman; E. C. Mueller, Corsicana Chamber of Commerce, secretary; Don Winslow, chairman folder distribution committee, and Boy Scouts; O. L. Albritton, poster committee.

Speakers Committee—Bill Bacon, chairman; Jack Stroube, Sam Werner, Rex Bounds, R. A. Armistead, Mrs. L. S. Cooper, J. C. Roe and Julius Jacobs.

Publicity and Advertising—Paul Moore, chairman; Drew Gillen, Blooming Grove; Howell Brister, Kerens; John J. Bryant, Corsicana and Ronne; E. C. Butler, Emhouse; C. M. Newton, Dawson; Miss Elizabeth Nixon, Richland, and Curtis Patterson, Frost.

Commercial Concerns Committee—N. Suttle Roberts, chairman; John McKissack, Bill Dafee, Sned Hamilton and E. H. Mueller.

Relief At Last For Your Cough

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

REP. OLIN E. TEAGUE

Rep. Teague Wins Praise Of Mayor In New Position

Rep. Olin E. Teague, new representative in congress from the Sixth congressional district, is going his way in Washington with the precision of a man who has a new job and is learning it step by step, Mayor John C. Calhoun said Saturday.

Calhoun returned this week from Washington where he and Teague appeared before a CPA priority group and won approval of starting immediate construction of the Texas Miller, Inc., hat factory building here.

"I think he is going to be a man this district can well be proud of," Mayor Calhoun said. "I think we are going to find him capable, intelligent and a representative with good, common sense and judgment. He is fast learning his way around Washington."

Mayor Calhoun reported that he was already making friends with the Texas delegation, had visited with Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn of Bonham, and had conferred with other congressional leaders.

Luther A. Johnson, federal tax judge and veteran representative of this district, spoke highly of the battle-beaten College Station war veteran, Mayor Calhoun said.

Rep. Teague was wounded six times while serving in the European theater, and is crippled in one foot. One member of his staff is an ex-army lieutenant who lost a leg in battle, the mayor said.

While in Washington, Mayor Calhoun had dinner with the Teague family at their home in Chevy Chase, Md.

"It's a typical Texas home, with Jack, Jim and Jill, the Teague's three children, running about," the mayor said.

Aged Farmer Of Near Blooming Grove Dead

BLOOMING GROVE, Oct. 18.—(Spl.)—W. L. Green, aged 96 years, native of Louisiana, but resident of Navarro county since two years of age, was buried in the family cemetery in the Lone Oak community Thursday. He was well-known here and spent most of his life on his farm four miles from Blooming Grove.

SATURDAY MORNING FUNERAL RITES HELD FOR BUSH WOFFORD

Funeral services for Bush Wofford, aged 59 years, former Corsicana resident, who died with a heart attack at his home in Dallas Friday morning, were held Saturday morning from the family home, 4413 Westway. Dr. Floyd Poe officiated. Graveside services were conducted Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the (Old) City Cemetery in Athens where interment was made. Masons had charge of the rites at the cemetery.

Wofford was president of the Corsicana Compress company and had bank and oil intreests in various Texas localities. He resided in Corsicana prior to his moving to Dallas a number of years ago.

Surviving are his wife, Dallas; a sister, Mrs. John P. Mayfield, Corsicana, and other relatives.

Pallbearers were Hugh E. Chestnut, J. M. Gibbs, L. G. Armstrong, Donald Gibbs, D. Poindexter, J. H. Andrews, L. L. Dellis, J. S. McNeeley.

Fiance Of Miss Paulyne Acre Dies Oct. 11

While en route to Indianapolis, Ind., last week, Miss Paulyne Acre was informed of the death of her fiance, Sylvester C. Kohlmeyer, who died of a stroke at his home in Indianapolis on Friday evening, October 11th. Less than an hour later Mr. Kohlmeyer's mother, Mrs. Adelaide M. Kohlmeyer, died of shock.

Double funeral services for Mr. Kohlmeyer and his mother were held on Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the Broadway Methodist Church in Indianapolis.

Miss Acre and Mr. Kohlmeyer were to have been married late this month.

Miss Acre is now in New York City making purchases of ready-to-wear for her shop, and will return to Corsicana around November 1st.

Rev. Finis Crutchfield was in Dresden on Sunday to fill the pulpit at the 11 o'clock hour and to hold the Fourth Quarterly Conference in the afternoon.

THREE ADDITIONS SUNDAY FIFTH AVE. CHURCH OF CHRIST

There were three additions to the Fifth Avenue Church of Christ, Sunday, all three by baptism. Frank J. Dunn, regular minister, spoke at both services yesterday. The sermon topic at the morning hour was "He Being Dead Yet Speaketh;" and at the evening hour, "The Way Which Seemeth Right." All services were well attended.

Mr. Dunn returned last week from Beeville, where he was engaged in a revival meeting. He reports good crowds despite a great deal of rain. Six responded to the invitation.

The women's Bible class of the Fifth Avenue church met Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and the midweek service will be conducted at the usual time, Wednesday, 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Cora Bates and Miss Nora Compton of San Antonio and Mr. and Mrs. Willie Bates of Altus, Okla., have been visiting relatives in the county.

Enough Food is no Accident

IT is no accident that the largest crops in our history are being harvested this year when we, and the rest of the world, need them most.

In spite of war, loss of labor and little new equipment, the American farmer has again taken care of us and provided a life-saving surplus for abroad.

How do our farmers do it? How is it that only sixteen per cent of our people can feed all of us and go on breaking records in the face of circumstances which slow up industry?

There are three reasons: First, farmers work harder and longer than most other Americans. Second, they know how to make the best use of tools. And, third, they have a long-standing partnership with industry seeking to satisfy their urge to get more out of the land for the same labor. Farmers are still practicing the kind of enterprise that built America.

National thanks are due the farmer for the job he has done in the last five years. Universal respect is due him for his foresight in helping industry equip farms to meet a whole series of emergencies.

BUT . . . we should not crowd our luck, or the farmer's luck either. Too many farm tools are now worn out. Without new ones production may go down. Farmers need over eight hundred million dollars' worth of new implements and equipment. It is up to industry and labor to keep wheels turning to produce them, but any recurrence of strikes would prevent this.

America should see that the hard-working farmer gets what he needs.
